 - e) an activity or event which may have an impact on other park users, wildlife or other surrounding residents;
 - f) filming and associated activities;
 - g) any commercial services or activities;
 - h) scientific research or educational activities.

Events and activities may also be subject to additional requirements and regulations, including local municipal regulations, regional district regulations and provincial regulations, including, but not limited to, zoning and special events regulations or licensing.

- 15.3 A person may apply for a Park Permit by submitting a completed Park Permit application form to the Parks Department, with all required attachments, which may include a location map, site plan, and proof of liability insurance or other requirements and any other details of the activity or event.
- 15.4 Once a Park Permit has been approved, the person requesting the Park Permit must pay a fee as set out in Schedule A to this bylaw prior to that Park Permit being issued.
- 15.5 The Parks Manager is not obligated to issue any Park Permit and may amend, suspend, revoke or refuse to issue a Park Permit to any person who has:
- a) contravened any previous Park Permit,
 - b) contravened this bylaw or any other enactment, or
 - c) applied for a Park Permit for an activity, or event that was found by the Parks Manager to be incompatible with the intended use of the Park.
- 15.6 The holder of a Park Permit must comply with all the terms and conditions of the permit and is solely responsible for the conduct of the activity or event which the Park Permit authorizes.
- 15.7 It is a condition of all Park Permits, that neither the FVRD nor any of its elected or appointed officers, employees, servants, agents, contractors, licensees or representatives accepts or assumes any responsibility or liability for any claims, demands, proceedings, actions, suits, costs, expenses, fines, losses or damages in respect to death, injury, loss or damage to persons or property, however caused, arising out of or in connection with the activity or event for which a Park Permit has been issued. If the FVRD or any of its elected or appointed officers, employees, servants, agents, contractors, licensees or representatives is named as a party in any proceeding relating to a Park Permit, the Permittee shall indemnify the FVRD for any costs, expenses or fees incurred in the defense of that proceeding.
- 15.8 Except as provided elsewhere in this bylaw, holders of a Park Permit must:
- a) remove all personal property and dispose of all structures, improvements, and works that they have built in a Park within 48 hours following the termination of the Park Permit, or within 48 hours following receipt of a written order from the Parks Manager, whichever occurs first; and
 - b) restore the area as nearly as possible to its natural condition to the satisfaction of the Parks Manager.
- 15.9 If a person does not comply with Section 15.8 the Parks Manager may, after providing or attempting to provide notice, authorize personnel to remove and dispose of the personal property, improvements, or works and restore the area as necessary. If the FVRD incurs any expense under this section, the person who failed to comply with this section owes the amount of that expense to the FVRD and shall pay that amount immediately on demand. The FVRD may pursue all other remedies available to it to recover any outstanding amounts.

16. FEES AND CHARGES

- 16.1 Fees and other charges with respect to the use of Parks are hereby imposed as set out in Schedule A attached hereto and forming an integral part of this bylaw.
- 16.2 Fees and other charges with respect to the use of Parks may be waived or refunded if a person:
- a) has already paid towards the cost to which the fee or charge relates;
 - b) does not require the service to which the fee or charge relates;
 - c) no longer undertakes the activity or thing for which a permit or approval was required; or
 - d) has prepaid toward the costs of the service to which the fee or charge relates and use of the service by the person is discontinued.

17. SEVERABILITY

If a portion of this bylaw is found invalid by a court, it will be severed and the remainder of the bylaw will remain in effect.

18. REPEAL
