

Candidates are responsible for understanding and following the rules in Part 3 of the Local Government Act and the Local Elections Campaign Financing Act (LECFA).

The Chief Election Officer and other election officials cannot provide legal advice or interpret legislation for candidates or their representatives. Candidates should obtain their own legal or professional advice if needed.

All questions about campaign financing must be directed to Elections BC, which administers LECFA. Elections BC contact information is included in this package.

QUALIFICATIONS FOR HOLDING OFFICE

Reference Sections 81 to 83 of the Local Government Act regarding qualifications and disqualifications for holding the office of Electoral Area Director.

NOMINATIONS

A nomination for the office of Electoral Area Director must be made by at least two qualified electors of the Electoral Area for which the nomination is made. A nomination must be in writing on Form C2 provided in this package. Elector qualifications are generally set out in Sections 64 to 67 of the Local Government Act.

CANDIDATE REPRESENTATIVES

A candidate may appoint one individual to act as an official agent for the candidate, and scrutineers to observe the conduct of voting and counting proceedings for the election. Official agents and scrutineers must abide by the direction provided by election staff at the respective voting place. Only one Scrutineer at each voting place is permitted. All candidate representatives attending voting locations must carry a copy of their appointment with them to show to the Presiding Election Official.

Scrutineer appointments must be made in writing on Form C6 – Appointment of Scrutineer and must be delivered to the Chief Election Officer or designate as soon as possible after the appointment is made. Refer to Sections 102 and 103 of the Local Government Act.

CAMPAIGN FINANCING

The Local Election Campaign Financing Act (LECFA) regulates candidate and elector organization campaign financing, third party advertising sponsors and election advertising. All matters pertaining to campaign financing and advertising are the responsibility of Elections BC. Please contact them directly should you have any questions regarding campaign financing.

ELECTOR ORGANIZATION ENDORSEMENT

An elector organization who has registered with Elections BC prior to July 31, 2026 may endorse a candidate in an election and have the endorsement included on the ballot provided the following conditions are met:

- The candidate must consent to the endorsement
- The endorsement must be made on the nomination documents along with the consent statements of the candidate and the authorized principal officer of the elector organization.
