

ENVIRONMENTAL POLICY ANALYST (AIR QUALITY) (FULL-TIME) Competition #2026-20

April 29, 2026

The Fraser Valley Regional District is a local government that delivers over 100 services to residents living in our eight electoral areas and six member municipalities. We are the third most populous regional district in BC, stretching from Abbotsford to Boston Bar. The Fraser Valley offers a great place to work and live with a mix of rural and urban lifestyles along with an abundance of recreational and cultural opportunities.

People are at the center of everything we do, and we strive to put the needs of those we serve and the employees in the organization at the forefront of our day-to-day work. We are an organization that values teamwork and respect. We are committed to diversity, equity, inclusion, and being representative of the region we serve. We invite all qualified candidates to apply. We are dedicated to the ongoing process of building relationships and examining our work to ensure that the principles of inclusion, collaboration, and reconciliation are included. If you have a passion for public service and want to make a difference in the lives of those who live, work, and learn in the Fraser Valley, consider coming to work with us.

We have an exciting opportunity for qualified candidates to fill the full-time position of Environmental Policy Analyst (Air Quality). Under the direction of the Manager of Environmental Services, a primary function of this position is to represent the FVRD and to actively participate, contribute to, and/or oversee several key interagency committees, task forces, and working groups relating to air quality and the airshed. The Environmental Policy Analyst is also responsible for air quality policy development and evaluation, data analysis, program coordination, scientific review and interpretation of potential environmental and socio-economic impacts within the region, and reporting to the Regional Board on current air quality or climate change issues and initiatives.

Required knowledge, experience, and abilities:

- » A Master's degree in Environmental Sciences, Environmental Resource Management, Environmental Engineering, or other similar degree is preferred, in addition to related experience or equivalent combination of education and experience;
- » Preferably five (5) years' experience in local government service delivery and knowledge of legislation, policies and procedures pertaining to Regional Districts and related environmental matters;
- » Experience in project management, conducting research, feasibility studies and risk assessments;
- » Ability to establish and maintain positive and effective working relationships with consultants, contractors, stakeholders, senior staff, co-workers, team members, advisory bodies and the public;
- » Strong communication skills, interpersonal and presentation skills, including the ability to express thoughts and ideas clearly, and converse with a wide range of people including technical consultants, senior staff, and the general public
- » Excellent writing skills, with the ability to write in a clear and concise manner, and to prepare well written technical and administrative reports;
- » Ability to work independently, exercise good judgement, and effectively handle conflicting priorities and non-routine situations;
- » Must possess a valid Driver's Licence.

The job rate for these full-time Union positions is $51.30 per hour plus a comprehensive benefit package.

Grow your career in an organization that supports employee work-life harmony including an earned-days-off program. Take advantage of employee programs that include support for mental well-being and physical health through our onsite gym. We offer a supportive, team-based work environment with an emphasis on collaboration. We believe in lifelong learning and are committed to providing and supporting training and professional development opportunities for our staff.

If you have a passion for public service and want to make a difference in the lives of Fraser Valley residents and FVRD employees, we want to hear from you. Please submit your resume, along with a cover letter, indicating how you meet the qualifications. Visit www.fvrd.ca/careers to apply for this competition by 4:30 p.m. on May 6, 2026.

While we appreciate the interest of all applicants, only those candidates under consideration will be contacted.
