A person must not enter the Evacuation Order areas as identified above and in the map for purposes of residing, occupying, or visiting.

An Evacuation Alert could be changed to an Evacuation Order with short notice. Please be prepared for potential evacuation until all evacuation notices have been lifted for the area.

Although the Evacuation Order has been rescinded (for one property), conditions within the area may remain hazardous due to post-wildfire hazards and other risks. Residents may continue to experience smoke and visible fire activity as BC Wildfire Service remains actively engaged in wildfire operations in the area.

WHAT YOU SHOULD DO:

1. Locate all family members and choose a meeting place outside the evacuation alert area in case you're separated when an Evacuation Order is issued.
2. Pack essential items, including:
 - Government-issued ID
 - Medications and prescriptions, eyeglasses & hearing aids
 - Important documents (insurance, credit, mortgage/tenancy)
 - Care needs for children, pets, and dependents
 - If space and time allow: keepsakes and comfort items
3. Make plans for those needing help:
 - Prepare to evacuate persons with disabilities (bring mobility aids/supports)
 - Account for seniors, children, and neighbours needing assistance
 - Understand your insurance coverage & review your home or tenant insurance for evacuation-related expenses
4. Be prepared to take pets and livestock with you:
 - Ensure pets are evacuation-ready with carriers, leashes, food, and vet records
 - Plan for transportation and sheltering of animals
5. Arrange transportation for everyone in your household:
 - Fill the gas tanks of vehicles
 - If you need evacuation transportation, pre-arrange with neighbours, friends and family
6. Plan where you will stay:
 - Make arrangements with family or friends
 - Accommodations may be limited to cots in comingled shelters during emergencies
7. If you'll need public aid assistance with lodging, food, or essentials after evacuation:
 - Ensure you have a BCeID digital app ID set up
 - Then set up or update your BC Emergency Support Services (ESS) profile now at ess.gov.bc.ca to receive the independent sheltering support funds from the province
8. Follow instructions from emergency officials and be prepared to leave immediately if an Evacuation Order is issued.
