

2021 BC Floods: Residential Mitigation Incentive Program

How the Red Cross helps:

The Canadian Red Cross is offering financial incentives through the Residential Mitigation Incentive Program to help eligible residents of a community impacted by the 2021 BC Floods and Extreme Weather Event.

Applicants must:

- ▶ Have a primary residence located in a community impacted by the 2021 BC Floods and Extreme Weather Event
- ▶ Be a homeowner, a tenant, or reside in a community-owned home
- ▶ Have a primary residence that was not damaged in the 2021 BC Floods and Extreme Weather Event or incurred minor damage that did not impact your ability to remain in your home
- ▶ Lived in and remains a resident of a community that was impacted or have relocated to a community that was impacted by the event

Important Information: To be eligible for reimbursement, you will need to provide the Red Cross with photos of before and after the work was completed, as well as receipts/invoices for the work completed.

Note that activities completed before January 16, 2024, are not eligible for reimbursement.

Application period: January 16, 2024 to April 30, 2024
