WHAT YOU NEED TO DO WHEN AN EVACUATION ALERT IS IN EFFECT

Upon notification of an evacuation alert, you need to be preparing for an evacuation order by:

- » Locating all family members.
- » Designating a place outside the evacuation area to meet should an evacuation occur.
- » Gathering essential items such as:
 - › Medications
 - › Eyeglasses
 - › Valuable papers (i.e. insurance, identification, and emergency contact numbers)
 - › Immediate care needs
- » Having essential items and irreplaceable personal items ready for quick departure.
- » Preparing to move
 - › Disabled persons (with mobility aids & supports required to maintain independence)
 - › Children
 - › Elderly
 - › Immobile neighbours
- » Having supplies, vet records, and containment needs ready for pets.
- » Implementing a plan to move livestock to safety.
- » Arranging for transport of your household members.
- » Arranging accommodation for your family if possible.
- » In the event of an evacuation order Emergency Support Services (ESS) sites may be activated for the purposes of family reunification, referrals to essential service providers, and Group Lodging.
- » Monitoring credible news sources for information on evacuation orders and locations of ESS Sites.
