

Utility Billing 2026 - Q2

Understanding Your 2026 Second-Quarter Utility Invoice

Water meters in Boston Bar and North Bend were read before June 30, 2026, prior to the Brunswick Complex Wildfire incident. During a community emergency, the immediate focus is understandably on the safety and well-being of residents rather than utility billing.

Now that the Canada Post Office in Boston Bar has reopened, your second-quarter utility invoice has been mailed.

Third-quarter water meter readings will occur shortly, and invoices will be mailed afterward. Please note that you have until December 31, 2026, to pay your utility invoice without penalty or interest. If payment cannot be made by that date, any outstanding balance will be transferred to your property taxes.

We recognize that you and your community have experienced significant stress this summer. We hope this information helps clarify the available options now that residents are returning to the community.
